

Applied Behavior Analysis is NOT within the competence of standardly trained Speech/Language Pathologists. There is a reason for which ABA providers must take numerous courses and a certification exam - there is a highly specialized body of knowledge which must be mastered before one can be a competent ABA provider. This would hurt the children of Connecticut.

DF

Deborah Fein, Ph.D.

UConn Board of Trustees Distinguished Professor Department of Psychology Department of Pediatrics
University of Connecticut deborah.fein@uconn.edu